From Class:

What an amazing ski camp we have all had in Wanaka this week. The weather was perfect on the mountain and all of our skiers got onto the chairlift this time around, so great progress made by all. Many of the senior children are now able to ski the beginner trails independently and are doing so well with great effort. With many thanks go to all of the parents who helped and supported us with this.

Other items:

- The principal will be away from school on sick leave from 13 September until at least the 27 of November. Mrs Gray will be teaching during this time.

Children's writing:

Mow is pregnant. She has a bed for her baby. It has a lot of clothes, a pram to sleep in.

Jacquelyn

Three days ago Dad got a rubber dingy for us to use in summer. Dad will tow it behind the boat. When Dad goes over a big wave we will fly over the wave. I would have a great time.

Jackson

Last night my Dad went to Dunedin Hospital because his middle finger was sore. He was going to stay over night but the doctor decided that he could come home. Now he is better and he feels better.

Lian

I am going to fix the rails in the hen house because the rams broke them. I will use good wood.

Alex

In the holidays Alex and I filled three enormous bags of fire wood in one day. The next day Dad cut more.

Clark

Yesterday on the farm we were checking our new calves, it was wet. When we were going back we got stuck.

"It is too slippery!" I said to Dad.

So Dad had to walk to the house, so I went to play in the bush and I hurt my head on a hard rock. Finally Dad came and I was nervous and Dad pulled us out.

Courtney

On Sunday it was the boar hunt. I was bored when we got there because there was no one to play with.

On Sunday at the boar hunt Jack and I got a free chocolate.

After that I went to see Amelia my friend. She is cool. She is 9 years old, just like me.

When I had gone to see my friend Dad gave me some money to go and get my face painted.

Then it was prize giving. I begged Dad to win something that was a bit like a donut, like what you tow behind a boat. But anyhow he didn't. I had a good time.
