From Class:

We are off at camp, finally, this week with a great mix of activities and walks staying at the Forest and Bird Lodge at Tautuku. We are lucky to have two sets of visitors coming to share their expertise with us as well during camp. Thanks to the three parents who have been able to help us out during the two days we are there.

Children's writing:

On Saturday I went to the beach and made a dam out of sand. It burst when the water got too deep but I fixed the dam quickly. I fixed it in time before the next wave came. After that I went down into the water. I felt tired because we stayed there for a long time.

Jackson

When I was at Paptowai beach with Rex I got wet. I liked getting wet. Rex was running fast through the water and he splashed Mum and Scralett.

Set

On Ramere I made my breakfast in the kitchen. I put butter and marmite on my toast.

Clark

The old blue truck
Our perfect old truck , well it isn't perfect because half of the gauges are broken. The starter motor is crook so we have to roll start it. It has holes in its cab. It is not legal on the road but it does all of the jobs we need it to do on the farm. The proper name for it is a Toyota landcruiser.

Liam

In the The critter hunt

On Thursday Jack, Dad and I went to the critter hunt. We got a billy goat. It stunk so badly I nearly fell over. After that we went too get some yabbies'. I got some big ones. We were doing it with Black Affleak, Luck Affleak, who is Black's little brother and he is three, and Stu Affleak.

Sarah

On Ramere I made breakfast with Mum in the kitchen. I put it in the toaster and waited. I was bored because I was hungry. So I popped it and I put peanutbutter on my toast. Then I ate it all up, my tummy was fantastic. It was amazing. Then I cleaned up. It was fun because I like washing dishes.

Courtney

Yesterday me, and Clark got the toy diggers out and dug some dirt we got the trucks out and made a pile of rocks.

Alex

Walking through the farm

Walking through the farm what did I see?
A giant brown bull charging at me.

Walking through the farm what did I see?
A fat hungry farmer pointing a gun at me.

Walking through the farm what did I see?
A friendly cow pooing on me.

Walking through the farm what did I see? Five hungry dogs chasing me.

Walking through the farm what did I see?
A 50v electric fence shocking me.

Walking through the farm what do I see?
My super Mum waiting for me with muffins.

Mr Copter

Turn on the engine rumble, crack, splutter

The crazy brainless pilot, an absolute nutter.

In midair we had the amount of fuel that could fill a cup, because the nutter forgot to fill up.

The pilot climbed out to fill the tank up, but ended up falling, getting scared by a pup.

Izzy

Mr Ute

He starts the engine with a cough and a splutter

He turns the wheels and drives out of the gutter.

He speeds along the highway

It's not child's play.

Pulling into the station to refuel

The flow of diesel is gradual.

He drives out to go to the store

To go and pickup a trophy boar.

He heads out with his load

Driving along the open road.

He pulls into his garage

And blends in with great camouflage.

And now he is home.
